Third Thursday Event

June 16, 2016

Please join us for a presentation and discussion on this important topic.

The National Disaster Preparedness Training Center (NDPTC) and the Department of Urban and Regional Planning (DURP) invite you to a presentation of the 2016 Practicum on Social Capital, Indigenous Community Capacity, and Disaster Management.

What is the role of social capital in building healthy communities? How can we build on the strengths of a community to ensure they prepare for and recover from natural disasters?

PRESENTATION TOPIC:

Spring 2016 Practicum provided research on social capital for the National Disaster Preparedness Training Center (NDPTC), and the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL).

- PRACTICUM STUDENTS:
- Sonomi Imagawa
  - Kailey Porter
  - Silvia Sulis
  - Brent Wozniak

NDPTC is in the process of creating and testing a training course on the topic of social capital and community capacity, specifically in regards to small island communities.

DHHL is interested in promoting grassroots strategies for disaster preparedness and community resilience building.
